

CALIFORNIA REFUND POLICY

The school must refund all monies paid if the applicant is not accepted. This includes instances where a starting class is cancelled by the school.

Institutions shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, see below.

A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund. The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

If the Student has received federal Student financial aid funds, Student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal Student financial aid program funds.

If the Student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the Student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. Written Notice: To cancel the bootcamp enrollment, students may send an email to admissions@codingdojo.com or deliver a signed and dated copy of cancellation notice, or any other written notice to:

Coding Dojo, LLC.
1980 Zanker Road, San Jose, CA 95112

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL:

The Student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

California Distance Education Refund Policy Addendum

Distance Educational Programs - Specific Provisions for Instruction Not in Real Time.

(a) An institution offering a distance educational program where the instruction is not offered in real time shall transmit the first lesson and any materials to any student within seven days after the institution accepts the student for admission.

(b) The student shall have the right to cancel the agreement and receive a full refund pursuant before the first lesson and materials are received. Cancellation is effective on the date written notice of cancellation is sent. If the institution sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the institution shall make a refund within 45 days after the student's return of the materials.

(c)(1) An institution shall transmit all of the lessons and other materials to the student if the student: (A) has fully paid for the educational program; and (B) after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. (2) If an institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, and evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student, but shall not be obligated to pay any refund after all of the lessons and material are transmitted.
